Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus Classic Concert

The Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus will present two performances of its annual CLASSIC CONCERT. Tucson's eastside concert will be on Saturday, February 8, 7:30pm at Our Mother of Sorrows Church, 1800 S. Kolb Road. The northwest side presentation is Sunday, February 9, 3:00pm at Ascension Lutheran Church, 1220 West Magee Road.

Under the direction of Dr. Julian Ackerley, the chorus will perform time-honored music representing a wide range of repertoire. Included will be selections from Renaissance, Baroque, and Classical choral masters as well as modern works.

The boys' pure treble voices will be joined with the tenors and basses of the Young Men's Ensemble accompanied by strings. A featured section will be music of Ludwig von Beethoven in commemoration of his 250th birthday including Das Göttliche and Opferlied. Also programmed is the vibrant Gloria from Misa Criolla by Argentine composer Ariel Ramirez

All the members of the Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus, including the younger TowneSingers, Training Chorus and Neighborhood Choirs from Oro Valley, Sahuarita and Vail will conclude the concert in a grand finale. The concerts are a part of the year-long celebration of the group's 80th Anniversary.
